Media Partnership at the Raw Materials Summit 2026

Becoming a Media Partner of the Raw Materials Summit 2026 offers enhanced visibility at Europe's leading raw materials event, alongside ticket benefits for your organisation and network.

Media Partner Benefits

- Logo placement on the official Summit website
- Logo display on the main stage during intermissions
- One complimentary full-access Summit ticket for your organisation
- 10% ticket discount for your network via a dedicated discount code

Media Partner Commitments

Media Partners are asked to deliver at least three of the following promotional activities:

- Display the Summit banner on your homepage for a minimum of one month
- Include a banner, event description, and registration link in your newsletter
- If feasible, distribute a dedicated newsletter promoting the Raw Materials Summit 2026
- Feature the Summit on your event page or calendar listings (if applicable)
- Provide social media coverage:
 - Two posts prior to the event
 - One post during or after the event
 - Using the official hashtags provided by EIT RawMaterials
- Promote the Summit through editorial content on your website prior to the event

Once content has been published, please share the relevant links.
Selected content may be reposted via EIT RawMaterials' communication channels.
